

THE OPTIONS TODAY: SURRENDER, TERRORISM OR SECESSION

For true abortion abolitionists, surrender in the form of futilely repeating failed tactics of the past will never be the option chosen. No matter how many millions of "Christian pro lifers" who continue to model that option, abortion abolitionists will always understand them to be quisling wannabe Christians whose actions and fruit prove them to be infant Christians if Christians at all.

That leaves terrorism or secession.

When Reverend Paul Hill was executed on September 13, 2003, bullets were sent to government officials with letters warning of an impending wave of terrorist actions against government officials and abortionists.

The only action that occurred was government action. A few weeks after Rev. Hill's execution, the FBI in a sting operation arrested a man named Stephen Jordi for plotting to burn abortion clinics. In Jordi's indictment the FBI made it clear they were attempting to sell the American people a bill of goods about the existence of "an underground network of abortion terrorists."

To date, there has been no evidence offered proving that any action taken against the abortion industry in the last decade was anything other than the work of individuals attempting to treat unborn babies on the verge of being slaughtered like they would want to be treated in a similar situation.

Of course there is no network. In fact hardly a vestige of the terrorism phase remains. For example, before the last abortionist, Barnett Slepian, was slain in 1998 there had been 6 murders, 17 attempted murders, 3 cases of kidnapping, 207 arsons and bombings of abortion mills, 82 attempted bombings and arsons, 654 anthrax threats, 125 cases of assault and battery, 973 death and bomb threats and 455 cases of stalking. Since then, there have been zero abortionists killed and so few of the other actions that Planned Parenthood has taken to listing crank phone calls as acts of terrorism in their monthly report.

Gone are the days when it was common to see poems like this one that was published in 1994 in Rev. Michael Bray's Capitol Area Christian News.

From 1994 to 2004 the entire terrorist inclination of the pro life movement withered until by the time the Rev. Paul Hill was executed in September of 2003, almost every trace of that willingness to advocate violence against the abortion industry was gone. Jim Kopp had been sentenced to life in prison for killing Barnett Slepian; with an equal sentence, Faux Anthrax Terrorist Clay Waagner was shrink wrapped on a shelf in some unnamed Super Max prison; and the entire abortion industry has begun to sleep well at night knowing the armed might of the United States military forces is arrayed around them along with the malignant acceptance and accommodation of virtually every living person in the United States of America.

Any moron can see why the acts of terrorism against abortion clinics have ceased. The federal government of the USA, as it hurries to become the police person for planet earth, looks more and more each day like a cross between Caesar of the Roman Empire and Attila the Hun. There is no way anybody can see his way clear to insert butyric acid through an abortion clinic keyhole when they will likely be whisked away to Guantanamo Bay without even their mommy finding out where Uncle Sammy took them.

Given the government protection now in place, if terrorism does return to the abortion industry, it will likely come from folks whose tactics will make Jim Kopp look like he utterly failed to do his homework. One thing is certain, those people will have no illusions about coming out of their terroristic actions alive.

I told Reverend Hill back in 1993 that if he continued down the path that led to abortionists being deterred from killing God's children because hot lead interrupted their synaptic processes, I had no doubt his actions would make the secession strategy that I was advocating look like a much more graceful solution than it looked when Rev. Hill's option was not in view. He said to me, "So be it." To which I replied, "So be it."

And that's where we are at today.

Secession as a way to utterly turn this land upside down has been tried twice before and worked both times. Once the secessionists were successful and founded what we now call the United States of America, and once the secessionists were unsuccessful. But in both instances, the secessionists literally succeeded in turning this nation upside down.

For those of you who will actually take the time to think about it, a secession movement is the logical next step to the non violent civil disobedience phase of the pro life movement. The secession movement advocated and being modeled by The Creator's Rights party literally builds upon all the principles of non violent civil disobedience. But, of course there is one major difference: A secession movement, unless it is stopped, literally overthrows the home government that is the object of the secession movement.

Under those circumstances it is certainly prudent to, as the Lord Jesus Christ said, Count the costs.

Under the circumstances around us today, some of us have quit counting and starting spending.

What about you?

50 Ways to Save a Baby

Sit down in the back, Jack
Or play with the lock, Doc
Get thrown in the bus, Gus
Just listen to me.

Just break off the key, Lee
Squeeze in the glue, Sue
Shoot up the wall, Paul
Just listen to me.

You can write to the Hill, Jill
Or just blow up the mill, Bill
Get out your gun, Son
Don't stop with just one.

And get yo' se-e-e-elf three."

Want to Cause Satan to Snarl?

Want to please lord jesus christ?

Then Put Legs On This Word From The Lord:

¹⁴Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?¹⁵ And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?¹⁶ And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.¹⁷ Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,¹⁸ And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.
2 Corinthians 2: 14ff

In obedience to God, prepare to secede with us. The secession strategy embodied by The Creator's Rights Party is the inevitable and necessary continuation of the non violent civil disobedience action created by the Holy Spirit and designed to abolish legalized abortion within our lifetime. If you were called to participate before, your calling has not been revoked because the gifts and calling of God are without repentance.
